

CAUTIONARY NOTICE

It has been brought to our notice that certain individuals and agencies have been promising unwary parents and their wards assured admissions to the programs offered by MIT World Peace University on payment of differently named fees which are not approved by the University. Such individuals and agencies are bogus and hence illegal.

Kindly note well that MIT World Peace University does not, under any circumstances and/or in any form, expect or accept payment in cash or kind for admissions under any category.

All parents and prospective students are cautioned to use extreme discretion against such unlawful agencies and also report the matter, if any, to the following:

- (a) Prof/Shri - - - . Email - ...@mitwpu.edu.in, Mobile No. - xxxxxxxxxx.
- (b) 24/7 Admissions Helpline No. - xxxxxxxxxx.

This kind of activity is a very serious offense in the field of education as it not only robs parents of their hard earned money but also puts the future of students in peril. We request parents and students to help us curb this menace by reporting such individuals and agencies to the authorities at MIT World Peace University.
