

International Economics Olympiad (IEO)-2020 Training Programme

MIT WPU School of Economics, the official mentor for International Economics Olympiad (IEO)-2020, successfully conducted a 10 days training programme from 27 July 2020 to 8th August 2020 for the IEO-2020 national toppers. These students were selected through the rigorous interview process of the semi-finalists shortlisted from the first round of written test conducted by the Meccademia, an event partner.

The team of five finalist namely, Anjanees Khosla, Gaurav Pallod, Rishika Jain, G.S. Vishnu and Rishi Venkateshwaran represented India at International Economics Olympiad 2020, Kazakhstan. Under the able leadership and guidance of Dr. S.S. Haridas, dean, Faculty of Economics, MITWPU along with the team of faculty members, Dr. Agamoni Mazumdar, Prof. Kaustubh Saurkar, Prof. Anuradha Pai and Prof. Kavita Ingale, the team of finalists is geared to compete at this prestigious international competition.

On the last day, 8th August 2020, the Valedictory function was held on a virtual platform. During this programme, the students were guided by the eminent guests. Dr. Jacob Samuel, Head of New Zealand Olympiad in Economics, HOD-Computing, Kings College, New Zealand discussed about the importance of teamwork and time management during competition; Dr. Anna Alexandra Dache, International Economics Olympiad mentor, Romania gave the valuable message saying "to keep the curiosity high". Further, Dr. Subramanian, Managing Director, Meccademia motivated the students with the story about Choluteca Bridge implying the lesson of adapting to the new course amidst disruption.

The program was also graced by Prof. Dr. N.T. Rao, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of MIT WPU who advised students - "To believe in Yourself". Prof. (Gp. Capt) D.P. Apte, Hon'ble Pro VC, MIT WPU highlighted the importance of physical and mental fitness during such competitions. Further, Mr. Onkar Gosavi, country head, Meccademia discussed the intricacies of the competition with the students.

MIT WPU School of Economics wishes all the best to Team India-IEO 2020!!!

Students' testimonials-

Anjani Khosala

The 2 week long training provided by MIT WPU for the International Economics Olympiad extensively covered different branches of Economics. Professor Shailashree Haridas ma'am's lessons on strategy enabled us to apply theoretical concepts in the real world through interesting case studies. Professor Kavita Ingale ma'am and Professor Anuradha Pai ma'am taught us financial literacy and public finance respectively. Their meticulous and interactive approach helped us to learn more about the world of finance and trade. Professor Kaustabh Sarkar sir and Professor Anagomi Mazumdar taught Macroeconomics and Microeconomics respectively. Through interesting examples, they explained difficult topics to us which helped us to better grasp the concept. I, personally, learnt a lot in these two weeks and I'm grateful to the university for this opportunity.

I ,G. S. Vishnu , attended the 10 day training session for IEO 2020 , organised by MIT WPU and Meccademia. It was an enriching experience for me. I got to learn and understand various concepts of Micro and Macroeconomics, Public Finance, Financial Literacy and Strategic Management. These learnings will not only help me perform well in IEO but will also springboard my pursuit of Economics learning. I thank the faculty at MIT WPU for their unmatched efforts towards training me.

Rishi Venkateshwaran

I would like to express my gratitude towards MIT-WPU and Meccademia for providing me with this wonderful opportunity to enhance my knowledge on Economics and for providing a rigorous training, meeting international standards. The extremely qualified teachers teaching various parts of Economics and Finance also helped me understand the intricacies involved and bring about clarity in my thinking.
