Anti Cheating Mechanism

This exam is smartly protected by two anti cheating mechanisms:

1. Lock and Track: Locks and tracks any browser deviations
 2. Video Proctor: AI based intelligent video proctoring
- Use of Head phones is strictly PROHIBITED. If found in the video, your performance would be cancelled.
 - No other application should be open while giving the exam.
 - Your video and audio are being recorded. Your screen activity is also being recorded.
 - Any malpractice will be reported as a flag and you could be barred from this exam.

Examples of a violation:

- Minimizing the browser or exiting fullscreen mode
- Deviation from the current browser tab
- Attempt to Google out answers
- Trying to Copy Paste content
- Use of keys like Ctrl, Cmd, Esc & Alt
- Additional faces and objects in the camera
- Your face not visible in camera
- Speaking or background noise
- Unnecessary eye movement

These violation messages will be displayed on-screen and also recorded in your performance report.

Important Please Note

- In case of internet connection / network disruption: Do Not Panic! Don't Escape, Don't Refresh, Don't click on FINISH or Close the Browser Window.
- If your internet connection goes off during the exam, you will see the message that you're offline. Don't panic, keep giving the exam as normal. The exam will still finish on time and all your activities will still be recorded.
- Keep the browser window open. Once the internet is back, your remaining answers, activity and video recorded while offline will be uploaded and synced automatically. But donot refresh or click on Finish while offline.
- All your previous answers, activity and video, before the disruption, was already recorded in real time and we would have it with us on your report.

After reaching a specific number of violations allowed, you will be automatically logged out and barred from the exam.
