Message

Dr. Neeraj Mahindroo

Dean,
School of Health Science and Technology

Greetings from Dr Vishwanath Karad MIT World Peace University, Pune India.

Clinical psychologists are an important part of the healthcare team helping in improving the health and wellbeing of the people. The sector was in limelight during the COVID 19 pandemic. The awareness in the citizens about mental health and the efforts of the Government have led to the growth of clinical psychology as a field in recent years.

The department aims at creating lifelong learners to adapt to the fast-changing world where upskilling and reskilling is a norm rather than exception. The department is closely working with the industry, hospitals and NGOs for internships, experiential training, and research. The rural, national, and international immersion programmes are designed to expose students to real life problems, cross cultural learning and wider exposure.

As said by Martin Luther King Jr "Intelligence plus character that is the true goal of education". The students are motivated to inculcate social and professional values, and a sense of discipline and character. We imbibe design thinking, problem-solving, life skills, values, and ethics in our students. Peace studies and yoga are integral part of the curriculum to make students physically and emotionally fit and mentally alert.

Department of Clinical Sciences provides a unique blend of excellence and commitment in a well-equipped campus with an ambience to nurture learning.

I join my faculty and staff colleagues to welcome to the Department of Clinical Sciences and we are excited to be part of your journey to learn and grow as professionals of tomorrow

M.Sc.

Life at Campus

Rural Immersion Programme

MIT-WPU's rural immersion programme is a unique educational opportunity that helps students understand and address the challenges faced by rural communities. During the programme, students visit a village and learn about the local culture, community, and landscape. They work on various projects, such as optimising irrigation systems, conserving and storing water, recycling waste, and using solar power, to improve the rural environment. This hands-on, real-life learning experience helps students develop critical thinking, problem-solving, and community awareness skills. It also helps them gain a deeper understanding of rural society and how their knowledge can lead to innovative solutions. Through these programmes, students learn how to bridge the gap between urban and rural areas in India.

R.I.D.E.

R.I.D.E is an yearly national conclave hosted by the Innovation Club of MIT-WPU to expand the horizons of education beyond academics and open the pathway for students towards entrepreneurship. The conclave is meant to expose students to the emerging research, entrepreneurship, design thinking and innovation in various fields. The five day conclave witnesses a footfall of ten thousand students and showcases over a hundred start-ups from various sectors including technology, design, healthcare, agri-tech, sustainable energy and retail. More than fifty experts from the venture capital industry address students about the changing face of start-ups, innovations and the evolving market trends to encourage out-of-the-box thinking by simulating a real-world start-up environment.

INDIAN STUDENT PARLIAMENT

Largest Classroom of India to evolve Future Political Leadership

MIT-WPU's flagship social initiative and brainchild of Shri. Rahul V. Karad, the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (BCS) is an yearly national event which aims to regenerate youth's interest in the country's political system, governance and administration. This non-political platform aims at sensitising the youth to the changing social and political landscape of the country through debates, discussions, addresses from eminent personalities including the chief ministers and governors of various Indian states, union ministers and members of the parliament. The BCS is also a platform to honour many young sarpanchs, local leaders, and social workers who have brought about a positive change in their localities and the lives of the people. The Sansad witnesses the participation of students from around 25000 colleges in India.

Students' Clubs at MIT-WPU

MIT-WPU is home to a diverse and active student community, with a wide range of clubs and organisations catering to a variety of interests and passions. These student-led clubs provide opportunities for students to get involved, make new connections, and develop their leadership skills.

Majorly, there are 5 categories of clubs at MIT-WPU; cultural, social, sports, co-curricular and NCC/NSS clubs which provide students with opportunities to learn about and explore their specific areas of interest.

Some examples of clubs at MIT-WPU include:

- The Innovation Club, which hosts events and workshops related to entrepreneurship and innovation
- The Art and Photography Club, which brings together students with a shared interest in artistic expression
- The Sports Club, which organises sporting events and activities for students to participate in
- The Cultural Club, which celebrates the diversity of the MIT-WPU community and promotes cultural exchange
- Aatman - It is the only Mental Health Club of MIT-WPU, Pune, that is led by the students of the Psychology department.
- Team Dart - Team DART is a motorsports team of MIT World Peace University which annually participates in a competition named Rally Car Design Challenge (RCDC) organized by professional industry sponsors

By joining a club or team, students learn to make the most of their time while engaging their mind and developing their skills, making meaningful contributions to the community at large. These clubs also participate in national and international competitions and have won various awards, ranks and recognition on numerous platforms.

Peace Studies

The mandatory peace studies module at MIT-WPU aims to provide students with a holistic education that integrates various disciplines for their personal development. Through this module, students gain a greater understanding of the interconnectedness and interdependence of mind, matter, spirit, and consciousness. They also learn about the critical spiritual laws that can help them develop a scientific temperament and a spirit of inquiry, as well as a sense of humanism.

In addition, the peace studies module introduces students to various yoga practices that help them develop their information base and cognitive abilities, as well as their critical thinking skills and personality. Upon completing the course, students will have a better understanding of how elevated consciousness can positively impact human behaviour and contribute to a happier, healthier, more peaceful, and empowered world. Overall, the peace studies module aims to equip students with the knowledge and tools they need to become more conscious, compassionate, and responsible global citizens.

Testimonials

Jameela Kagalwala
M.Sc. Second Year
1st Rank holder

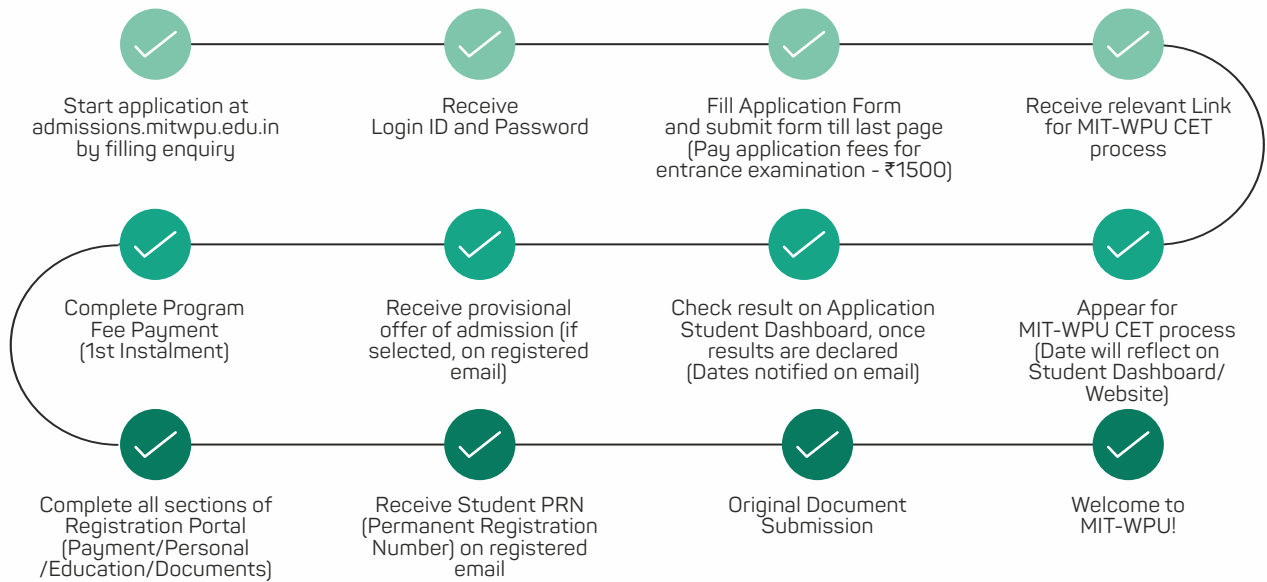

Studying at MIT-WPU was an enthralling experience, it changed my perspective about not only education but also life. The M.Sc. Clinical Psychology programme has moulded me into a person who can contribute to society's mental health and well being. The expertise of the faculty and delivery of the subject matter has given me profound knowledge and skills to take on anything in the real world.

Vaishnavi Mantrawadi
M.Sc. Second year
3rd Rank holder

MIT-WPU's pedagogy in its M.Sc. Clinical Psychology programme included a lot of guest lectures, institutional visits, seminars, webinars, interdisciplinary programmes and events which provided an ocean of opportunities to interact with students from other departments of the University. The faculty members supported us and gave us a lot of flexibility while submitting our assignments and projects. The library has a lot of books for quick reference. I loved the students-centric approach adopted by the Department. I would recommend this course to all budding aspirants of psychology!
