The School of Liberal Arts at MIT-WPU is a vibrant hub where intellectual excellence and academic distinction merge seamlessly. In the spirit of learning, we offer a diverse range of programmes crafted to broaden your horizons and ignite your passion for the arts and humanities. Our forward-thinking curriculum spans an array of disciplines, from literature and philosophy to film-making, media and communication, sociology, and the fine arts. Our distinguished faculty is a fusion of educators and industry experts, ensuring that your education is comprehensive and practical, grounded in real-world perspectives. The School of Liberal Arts at MIT-WPU is your gateway to embracing the richness of the human experience, and together, we shall embark on an intellectual journey of discovery.

Department of Education

The Department of Education at MIT-WPU, is dedicated to molding students into conscientious, mindful, and empathetic educators for the future. The forward-looking curriculum of the B.Ed. and M.Ed. degree programmes, curated by esteemed academicians, integrates the most effective pedagogical techniques and theories. A blend of regular faculty and guest lectures, along with focused classroom management sessions, is instrumental in training candidates to comprehend student psychology effectively and overcome the challenges of the academic environment. Followed by NEP 202, these programmes are designed to empower future educators with the ability to amalgamate the best practices from Western pedagogy with the ideals of India's Gurukul system, fostering a more student-centric learning environment. The aim is to prepare teachers who can skillfully navigate the ever-evolving landscape of education, making classrooms more engaging and tailored to the needs of each student.

Key Highlights

- Integrates global perspectives and diverse teaching methods for next-gen educators. Includes international exposure, film analysis for critical thinking, and holistic well-being practices.
- Adheres to National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) guidelines, emphasising both theory and practical teaching, and stays up-to-date with MOOCs, content curation, and diverse resources.
- Dedicated Centre for Industry-Academia Partnerships (CIAP) for comprehensive student support, including assessments, training, internships, live projects, and career opportunities in leading organisations.
- Students learn directly from industry figures through guest lectures, seminars, training, grooming sessions and workshops for unique perspectives.
- Addresses visual, auditory, and kinesthetic learning styles. Utilises online platforms, mobile-web-based learning, and blends experiential with situation-based learning.
- Implements technology, online tools and innovative strategies for modern-day evaluation, including online examinations.
- Partnerships with reputed schools in Pune enable students to pursue meaningful paid internships alongside structured placement support for distinguished careers.
- 50+ students qualified for the CTET exam during their degree programme.
- The B.Ed. programme empowers future educators with a choice-based interdisciplinary approach, offering 14 diverse teaching methods across languages, science and technology, social sciences, and specializations like commerce and psychology—ensuring versatile teaching expertise for tomorrow's classrooms.

ANOSH GAIKWAD

Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.)

My B.Ed. experience at MIT-WPU has been remarkable because of its strong focus on practical education. The programme doesn't just teach pedagogy but gives us ample opportunities to practice teaching in real classrooms. Micro-teaching sessions, lesson planning, and interactive workshops have sharpened my teaching skills. This hands-on approach has made me confident and ready to step into the teaching profession.
