Programme for "Culture of Peace"

Only one competency lasts. It is the ability to create a steady, self-renewing stream of leaders. Money is just a commodity. Talent supplies the edge.

Dr. Ramcharan's Message

It gives me immense pleasure to learn that MIT-WPU Pune has decided to set up a School of Leadership under its Faculty of Business and Leadership, named after me as 'Ramcharan School of Leadership'. The challenge for a leader in today's volatile world is different from a manager. Though management is all about getting things done through others, a leader must go the extra mile by running three core processes that include picking other leaders, setting strategic direction, and conducting operations. It is high time that organisations must identify their potential leaders and groom them for future challenges. What separates a strong and fast-moving company is its ability to detect and pounce on opportunities so that even in a downturn they can snap up assets at bargain prices and snatch market share out from under their competitors. Leaders with such acumen can only excel in the coming period.

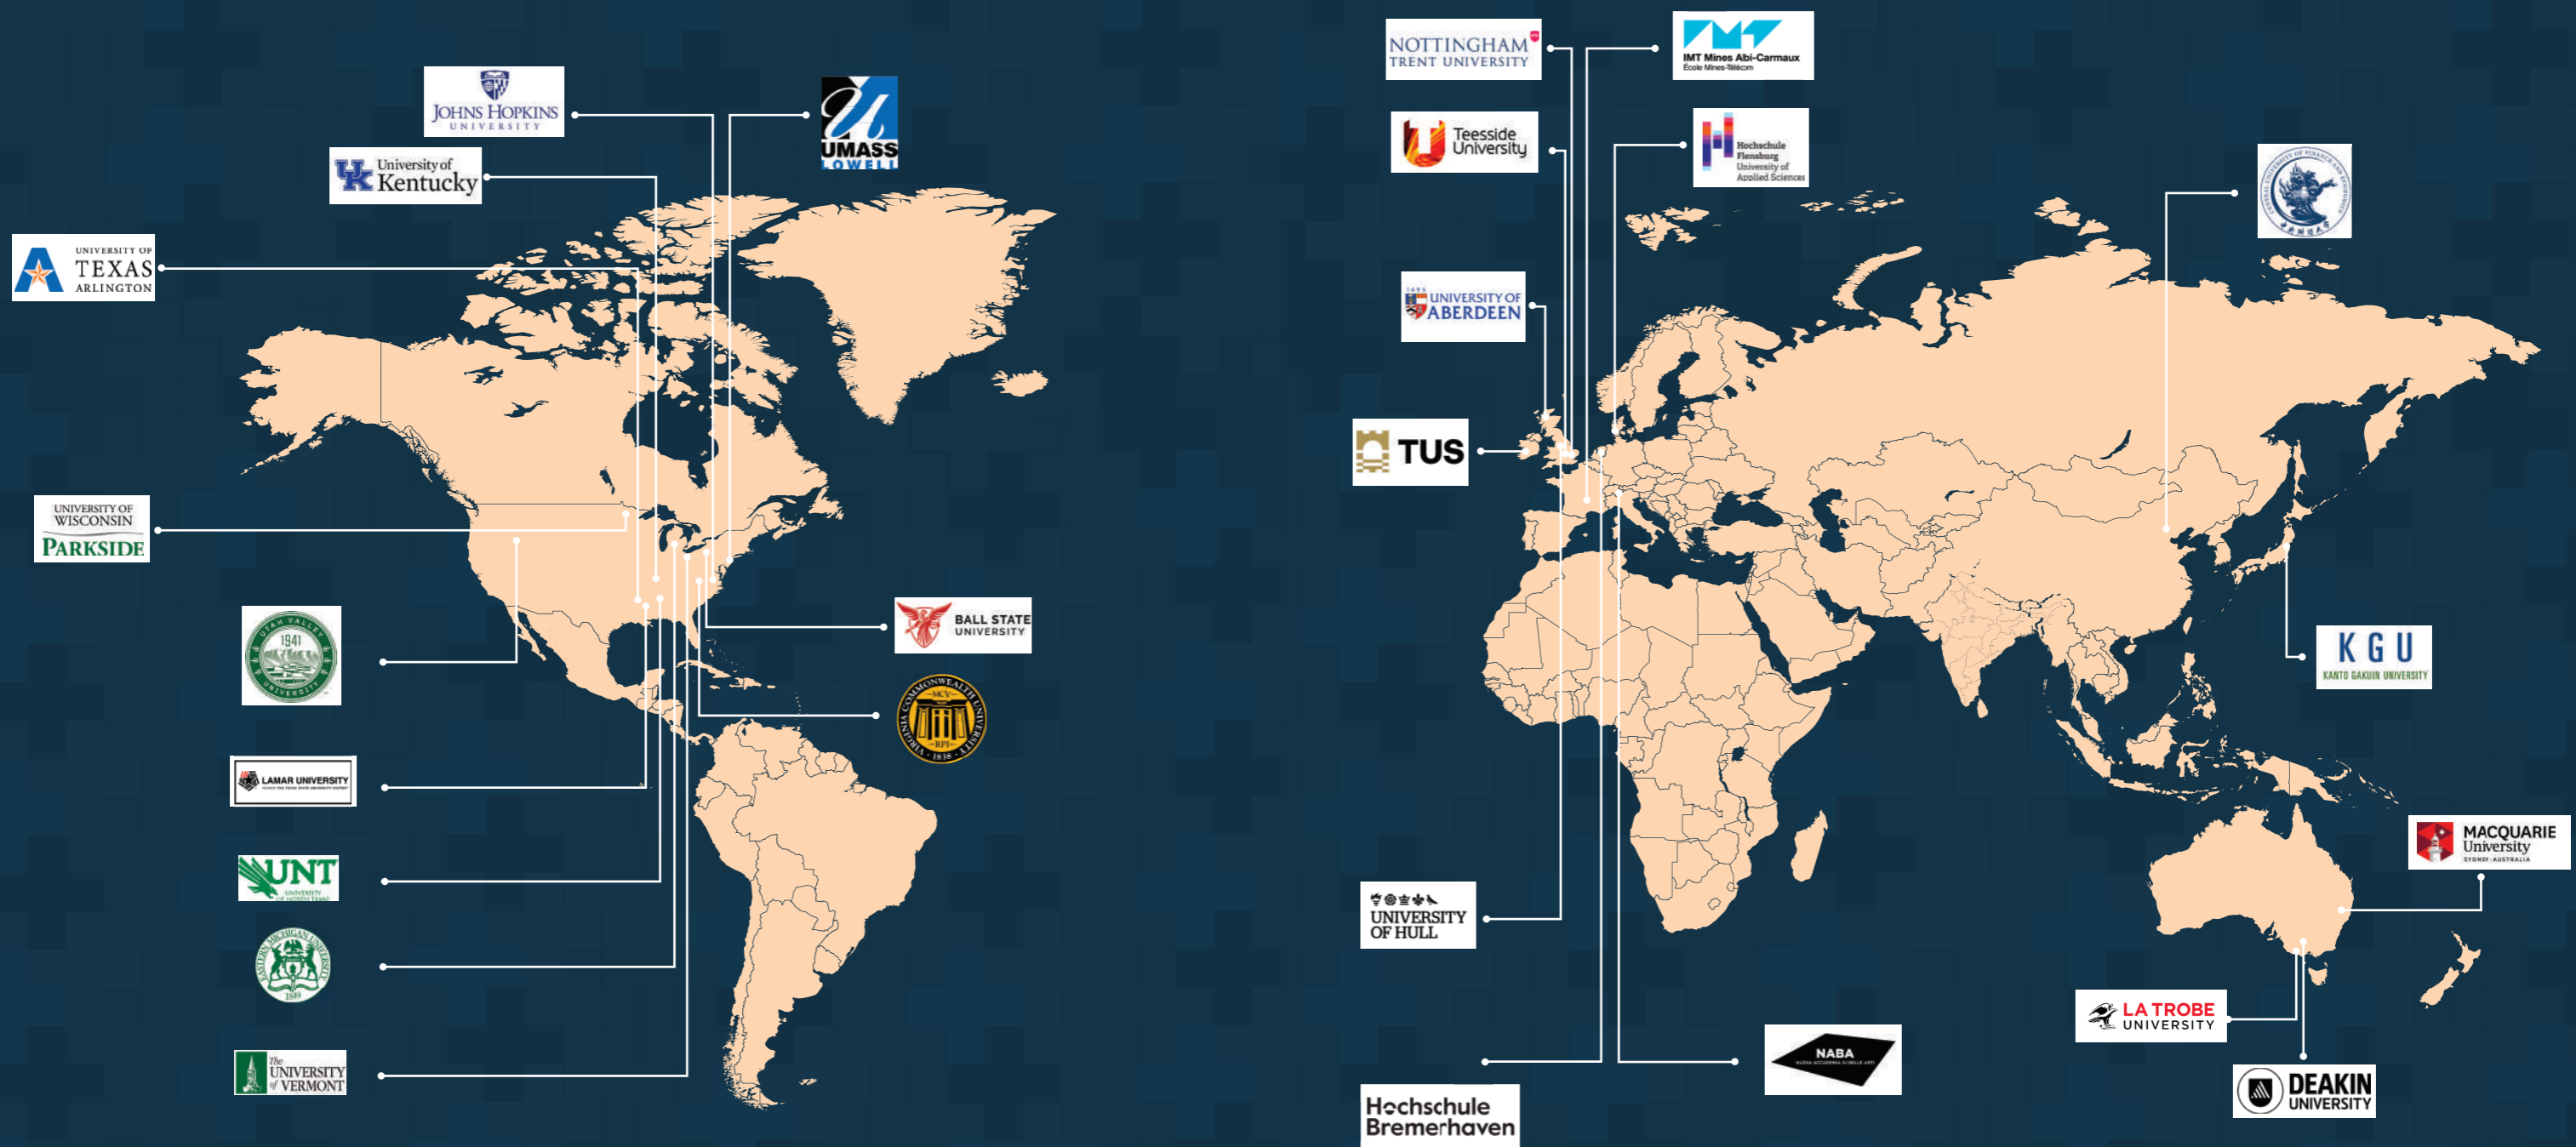

The Ramcharan School of Leadership (RSoL) aims at building the pipeline of future leaders. I am sure RSoL will transform the leadership training landscape in India through innovative, relevant, and meaningful curriculum & pedagogy. The school will bring national and global thought leaders to deliver a well-designed curriculum and ignite the minds who are capable and willing to take the company and nation to the next level. Leadership is all about hope and success. The sky takes on shades of orange during sunrise and sunset, the colour that gives you hope that the sun will set only to rise again. RSoL is all about building that hope, and developing leaders for the future who will build value for all the stakeholders.

Academic Partnerships: Making Learning Global

The Ramcharan School of Leadership at MIT-WPU is dedicated to offering a truly global education experience through strategic partnerships with esteemed international universities. ## Peace Studies: Fostering Holistic Growth

Understanding the importance of inner and social peace and conflict management skills is crucial in today's world. MIT World Peace University has adopted UNESCO's core vision of 'Building Peace in the Minds of Young Men and Women' as its guiding ethos.

The university offers a mandatory course of peace studies that lays the foundation for spiritual peace & harmony. It explores new ideas and practices from various cultures to tackle the challenges of global peace and sustainable development. The university also plans to introduce an advanced postgraduate degree programme in Peacebuilding and Conflict Management that offers state-of-the-art learning opportunities to study traditional and contemporary pedagogies of peacebuilding and conflict management.

The main objective of this course is to prepare students to become agents of social change and genuine global citizens. It trains them in non-violent communication to promote peace and prevent violence in communities and workplaces. Furthermore, the peace studies module also acquaints students with diverse yoga practices that enrich their cognitive prowess and information base, refining critical thinking and enhancing their overall personality. This interdisciplinary course, developed with input from scholars and practitioners worldwide, helps students build knowledge of India's spiritual & cultural ethos. Additionally, the course covers essential conflict management knowledge and skills that are in high demand in today's corporations.
