

2 Days' Online Seminar on “Emerging Trends in Information Technology”

School of CET is organizing a 2 Days' Online Seminar on “Emerging Trends in Information Technology” which is sponsored by The IET Pune LN.

The objectives of organizing this event are as follows:

- Engage IET student members, Other Students and full members.
- Getting exposure to advancements in recent Emerging Trends in Information Technology like Data Science, Cyber Security, Grid Computing, IOT and Smart Transformation, etc.

Day 1 (Session 1 and 2)

Link for attendees: <https://bit.ly/3rwxgix>

Date and Time: Saturday, February 27, 2021

Session 1 at 10:00 am and Session 2 at 02.00 pm

Event number: 158 050 6200

Event password: event@123

Session 1: AI, ML, DL, DS: Myths and Realities

Session 2: Data Science

Day 2 (Session 3 and 4):

Link for attendees: <https://bit.ly/3cNqfH7>

Date and Time: Sunday, February 28, 2021

Session 1 at 10:00 am and Session 2 at 02.00 pm

Event number: 158 931 0503

Event password: event@123

Session 3: Smart Grid & e-Mobility

Session 4: Information Security Trends & Challenges

After attending the seminar it is expected that participants will....

- Know different trends with respect to the advancements in IT.
- Know the different upcoming technologies in IT.
- Plan to learn new technologies to compete with the world
- Learn latest technologies together by forming special interest group(s)

There are going to be a total four sessions, two on each day. The expert speakers are from Industry and academia. The topics covered in these four sessions are:-

1. AI, ML, DL, DS: Myths and Realities
2. Data science
3. Smart Grid & Electrical vehicle
4. Information Security Trends & Challenges

The event is happening on 27th and 28th Feb. 2021.

The coordinator (SPOC) for the event is Mr. Vitthal Gutte, Asst. Professor, School of CET, FoET, MIT-WPU, Pune.